

	Comparative Overview
Senate Bill 1247	Senate Bill 847/House Bill 1926	Substitute for Senate Bill 1247

Information Technology Investment Board	Technology Investment Board	Information Technology Investment Board
Makeup	Makeup	Makeup
8 members: Secretary of Technology, Secretary of Finance, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, 3 citizens appointed by the Governor and 1 citizen appointed by the Joint Rules Committee.	19 members: 9 Cabinet secretaries, Chair of JCOTS, 1 Member of the House of Delegates, 1 member of the Senate, State Treasurer, Comptroller, Auditor of Public Accounts, and citizens appointed by the Governor.	9 members: 3 citizens appointed by the Governor, 4 citizens appointed by Joint Rules, the Secretary of Technology (ex officio w/ voting privileges) and the Auditor of Public Accounts (ex officio w/o voting privileges).
Authority	Authority	Authority
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hire Chief Information Officer (5-year contract) Approve/reject proposed major technology projects greater than $1 million in cost or of statewide application Approve 4-year plan for information technology projects including a list of actual projects Oversee development of major information technology projects Approve criteria for approval, planning scheduling and tracking of major information technology projects Submit annual list of recommended technology investment projects for funding to the General Assembly 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review proposals for state agency projects greater than $1 million or of statewide significance Recommend projects to Secretary of Technology for planning, development and procurement Prioritize funding and resources for technology projects Apportion costs for projects Establish internal and external oversight committees for major information technology projects Review projects for public-private partnerships Review and approve annual updates of the information technology strategic plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hire Chief Information Officer (5-year contract) Approve strategies, standards and priorities for the use of information technology by executive branch agencies Approve the development of major information technology projects; terminate such project based on recommendation by the CIO Approve 4-year plan for information technology projects including a list of actual projects Approve criteria for approval, planning scheduling and tracking of major information technology projects Submit every September 1 a list of recommended technology investment projects and priorities for funding such projects to the Governor and the General Assembly

Comparative Overview

Senate Bill 1247

Senate Bill 847/House Bill 1926

Substitute for Senate Bill 1247

Chief Information Officer (CIO)	Chief Information Officer (CIO)	Chief Information Officer (CIO)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establishes independent CIO position appointed by Board under a 5-year contract Head of the Department of Technology Planning (DTP) Approval of planning for major technology projects Leads project approval and oversight process Recommends major information technology projects to the Board for rejection or approval Review and approve procurements for information technology and telecommunications Develop statewide technical and data standards 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> CIO responsibilities remain with Secretary of Technology Oversees planning and delivery of technology projects Authority to approve, reject or terminate major technology projects Develops 2-year strategic plan for information technology Virginia Information Technologies Agency (VITA) develops statewide information technology architecture and related set of system standards 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establishes independent CIO position appointed by Board under a 5-year contract Head of the Virginia Information Technologies Agency (VITA) Approval of planning for and development of major technology projects Authority to modify or suspend major technology projects; may recommend termination of such projects to the Board. Leads project approval and oversight process Review and approve all procurements for information technology and telecommunications for state agencies Oversees development of statewide technical and data standards Establish minimum qualifications and training standards for project managers Responsible for security of state agency databases (moved from Secretary of Technology) Requires state agency heads to designate an employee as the agency's information technology resource responsible for compliance with CIO guidelines.

Senate Bill 1247	Comparative Overview Senate Bill 847/House Bill 1926	Substitute for Senate Bill 1247
-------------------------	---	--

Project Oversight and Support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establishes Project Management Division within DTP to assist in providing project management/oversight Division provides project management training and support to state agencies Provides detailed major technology project planning, development, approval, procurement and oversight process Requires internal and external oversight committees for major technology projects 	Project Oversight and Support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establishes Enterprise Program Management Office within VITA Office provides ongoing project management training and support to state agencies Approval of planning, development and procurement by Secretary of Technology with recommendations from the Board Requires internal and external oversight committees for major technology projects 	Project Oversight and Support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establishes Project Management Division within VITA to assist in providing project management/oversight Division provides project management training and support to state agencies and public institutions of higher education Provides detailed major technology project planning, development, approval, procurement and oversight process Requires internal oversight committees for major technology projects and any additional oversight deemed necessary by the CIO
Council on Technology Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Does not make any changes 	Council on Technology Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Changes size from between 20 and 26 to between 18 and 24 Specifies that the members representing the secretariats be either agency business area or executive level leader Adds 3 private citizens with experience in technology 	Council on Technology Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Changes size to 23 members Changes appointing authority for the membership from the Governor to the CIO Changes composition to provide for the members representing the secretariats, public universities, and independent agencies to be designated technology resources.

Comparative Overview

Senate Bill 1247

Senate Bill 847/House Bill 1926

Substitute for Senate Bill 1247

Financing/Funding of Technology Projects	Financing/Funding of Technology Projects	Financing/Funding of Technology Projects
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Does not affect the Virginia Technology Infrastructure Fund or the Geographic Information System Fund administered by DTP; maintains all internal service funds Requires the Board to submit annually to the General Assembly a prioritized list of major information technology projects for funding Authorizes the Virginia Public Building Authority to issue debt to finance major information technology projects 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abolishes existing Funds administered by DTP and establishes the Virginia Technology Fund for telecommunications and information technology projects of an enterprise nature The Board (i) reviews and prioritizes projects requested by state agencies, (ii) apportions costs for projects requested by state agencies through the Cabinet secretaries, and (iii) advises the Secretary of Technology regarding the use of the Virginia Technology Fund. Authorizes the Director of VITA to enter into public-private partnership contracts to finance or implement information technology programs and projects Establishes the Public-Private Information Technology Partnership Fund to receive total amount of increased revenue attributable to the successful implementation of a program or project Centralizes procurement of information technology and telecommunications of every description for state agencies in VITA 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Does not affect the Virginia Technology Infrastructure Fund or the Geographic Information System Fund; maintains all internal service funds Requires the Board to submit annually to the Governor and the General Assembly a prioritized list of major information technology projects for funding Authorizes the Virginia Public Building Authority to issue debt to finance major information technology projects Includes language specifically centralizing procurement for state agencies of information technology and telecommunications of every description for state agencies in VITA

Comparative Overview

Senate Bill 1247

Senate Bill 847/House Bill 1926

Substitute for Senate Bill 1247

Agency Structure and Personnel	Agency Structure and Personnel	Agency Structure and Personnel
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Leaves intact the Departments of Information Technology (DIT) and Technology Planning (DTP) and the Virginia Information Providers Network Authority (VIPNET), and the Virginia Geographic Information Network Advisory Board (VGIN Board) Establishes a Project Management Division within DTP to include project management specialist Does not change the reporting status of state agency information technology employees 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abolishes the DIT, DTP, VIPNET, and the VGIN Board Establishes the Virginia Information Technology Agency (VITA). Establishes Public Safety Communications Program, Geographic Information Network, Virginia Information Providers Network and Enterprise Program Management Office within VITA Authorizes the transfer of all state agency information technology employees to VITA Authorizes the transfer of appropriations from one state agency to another Requires VITA to review information technology contracts held by executive branch agencies and determine the source and availability of continued funding for a contract and whether any contract should be continued, cancelled or modified 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abolishes the DIT, DTP, and VIPNET. Does not Affect VGIN Board Establishes the Virginia Information Technology Agency (VITA). Provides for the consolidation of operational functions of information technology for state agencies, in VITA. This would include a limited number of employees in state agencies that perform operational functions such as network and server support.

Comparative Overview

Senate Bill 1247

Senate Bill 847/House Bill 1926

Substitute for Senate Bill 1247

Implementation	Implementation	Implementation
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No implementation schedule provided	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No implementation schedule provided	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Establishes the following implementation schedule:<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. January 1, 2004: consolidation within VITA of network management and server and other operational functions for state agencies with position levels of 100 or fewer2. July 1, 2004: consolidation within VITA of server and other operational functions for state agencies with position level between 100 and 4003. January 1, 2005: full implementation of all standards, policies and methodologies and consolidation within VITA of server and other operational functions for state agencies with position levels over 400• Secretary of Technology to report to General Assembly on or before December 1, 2004, on the status of implementation.• VITA authorized to promulgate emergency regulations• Secretary of Technology to continue serving as CIO until appointment by the Board of new CIO